

Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Timelines

You have been assigned one of the following areas to create a timeline presentation describing how the area of law has changed through each of the cases mentioned. The timeline should address the cases in chronological order and when/where applicable should mention connections between the cases (especially if one case either built upon a ruling in a previous case or if it altered or overturned a previous decision). Ideally, each case should have its own slide. Make sure each slide clearly addresses the issue at play, how the court ruled, and whether rights/liberties were expanded or curtailed by the decision.
