

U.S. History

Unit 7 Review Sheet

Chapters Covered

- Ch. 27 “The Postwar Boom”
- Ch. 28 “The New Frontier and the Great Society”
- Ch. 29 “Civil Rights”
- Ch. 31 “An Era of Social Change”

Crash Course Videos

- Civil Rights
- The Sixties

Key Terms and Questions:

- Suburbia
- GI Bill of Rights
- The 1950s “Repression v Rebellion” battle (in areas of family, attitudes/values regarding sex, suburbia, women’s roles, music/culture, and group adherence)
- Truman’s desegregation of the military
- Dixiecrats
- Truman’s Fair Deal
- Conglomerates and franchises
- Social conformity of the 1950s
- Baby Boom (what it was, and what caused it)
- Dr. Salk and polio
- Development of the interstate highway system
- Impact of the automobile in the 1950s
- Consumerism and planned obsolescence
- The Beat Movement
- White Flight and the impact on urban cities
- Braceros program
- Termination policy (Native Americans)
- JFK and “Camelot”
- The New Frontier (The Peace Corps, Alliance for Progress, The Space Race)
- Kennedy’s assassination and the Warren Commission.
- The Great Society (Economic Opportunity Act, Medicare, PBS, Civil Rights Act of ’64, Voting Rights Act of ’65, Immigration Act of ’65, Air Quality Act, Water Quality Act, HUD)
- Why the Great Society “created” the modern era
- The Warren Court and the expansion of Civil Rights and Civil Liberties
- Plessy v. Ferguson and Brown v. Board (and the judicial implementation of Brown... why so long?)
- Civil Rights Individuals (Thurgood Marshall, MLK, Rosa Parks, James Meredith, A. Philip Randolph, Bayard Rustin, Malcolm X, Fannie Lou Hamer, Stokely Carmichael (Kwame Toure)

- Civil Rights Battles (Montgomery Bus Boycott, Little Rock Integration of Central High, Sit-in Movement, Freedom Riders, “Project C” in Birmingham, March on Washington, Selma Movement)
- The Black Power Movement and the Black Panthers
- De facto vs. De Jure segregation
- Affirmative Action
- Brown Power Movement: Why was the BPM so diverse? What were some of their targets?
- United Farm Workers
- La Raza Unida
- AIM – American Indian Movement (Alcatraz, Seizure of Wounded Knee, Trail of Broken Treaties)
- Feminist Movement (NOW, leaders: Gloria Steinem, Betty Friedan)
- Yellow Power Movement: What stereotypes were they trying to get over, why was the Vietnam War so problematic for Asians?
- Roe v. Wade
- ERA and its subsequent rejection
- Phyllis Schlafly and Conservative reaction to the Feminist Movement
- The Counter-cultural movement and Hippies